

Consent for use of Information, Photographs and/or Video Images

The Capital Region Farmers Market ('the Market') is run by the Rotary Club of Hall.

The Market seeks your permission to use the information and/or photographs and/or video images of you for the Canberra's Best Young Aspiring Chef competition ('the Competition') and other marketing for the Market. This includes any video and written content produced as part of your entry ('the Submission').

Your name, suburb, age and the Submission may be used by the Market on the Market website, social media and other marketing material.

Acknowledgement and Consent

I or my legal representative (a term that could include a guardian or a person exercising my power of attorney):

- Acknowledge that my information, photographs and video images submitted and captured as part of the Competition may be disclosed to person/s and or organisations for use in promotional activities;
- Acknowledge that I have read the content and been given a copy of this form;
- Acknowledge that I am over 16 years of age (for children under 16 years a parent or guardian must sign) in line with the consent guidelines provided by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner;
- Consent to the use of my information and the photographs/video images described on this form by the Market now, and at any time in the future, including after my death, for the purposes outlined above;
- Understand that once my information and any of the photographs/video images referred to above have been published, the Market has no control over their subsequent use and disclosure;
- Understand that my information and any of the photographs/video images referred to above including my quotes may be published on social media, national and local media encompassing print, television and internet based formats.
- Understand that the Market does not guarantee that my information and/or photographs and/or video images will necessarily be used;
- Understand that I will receive no payment from the Market for the use of my information and/or photographs and/or video images in generally available publications; and
- Understand that I am under no obligation to provide my consent for the use of my information, photographs and/or video images;
- Understand that I can withdraw permission for the further use of my information, photographs and/or video images at any time by written request to the Market via the Market website Contact us page.³
